PA NEWC OBSERVES

Despite the mild weather of today, Pa Newc saw a couple of youths walking around the city wearing ear-muffs, and hatless.

Saturday's Spring like weather brought an influx of citizens out on the streets of the city, with the downtown stores almost as crowded as they were the Saturday before Christmas. Many had left their overcoats at home feeling no necessity for them with the beautiful weather offered them.

rather silly, in my estimation. One pay a full time counsel and legal showed the President making a snowball on the White House grounds. He was obviously not dressed for such a pastime and simply posing for photographers. Don't you think that it would be much more appropriate, in these days of anxiety, to see our President busying himself with more important things than with making snow-

The Parent

Problem By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

MOTHER CAN'T CONTROL CHILD

Let us consider ways a mother might make it easier for herself to lessen vexations over the child's upbringing. The source of her most frequent irritation over the youngster is her failure to establish early effective controls. When she says No or Don't to the tot two on three years old and he goes on to do what he has just been told not to do, she is annoyed, of course. She betrays her anger in her voice as she repeats the forbidding and the more often she repeats, the louder and more smill the utterance and, obviously, the madder she gets Child Vexed

The disobeying child also is vexed. They vex each other. If, at last, she spanks him, he may have grown so resistant as not to ing him and her madder still Such mutual irritation may go on from one situation to another until there may not be left much time when they feel lovely and companionable toward each other Besides ,this irritation renders him less ready to cooperate with her in the ordinary routines and at times when she requests him to do somsthing; also renders her less able then to be lovely, winsome and per-

Train Tot

As I have been pleading for years good character, conduct and citizenship in the youngster, but also the immediate loveliness and happiness to a child who constantly irritates them by his wilful disobedience?

Establish early in the tot a proper regard for your authority and then you have removed about the biggest source of irritation with him. Yet that mother who repeated No with increasing anger to her heedless tot Truman's mother—or with yours or per-hour record set recently by a to establish this authority. She may have supposed she was trying erred in a simple way. She repeated the No or Don't. She should have said it just once in a moderate tone. If the tot did not stop at once, she hould have spanked him so soundly that he not only would have chosen to stop that time but would really respect her No next time. I discuss this further in my bulletin, "How to Teach the Tot Meaning of No," to be had for postage by adiressing me at 235 East 45th street,

New York, N. Y.

Effective Punishment Concerning other things this roungster does but clearly knows he should never do, the mother should not say No or Don't even once, but administer effective punishment immediately and without

In new situations which arise in which she will need to say No or Don't, she can use the word as mere information and he will respect it. See how such achievement will remove annoyance to the child and parent. See how the air will be cleared for affection, companionable conversation and enjoyment between the child and parent then Consider how much more persuasive her positive suggestions and her requests will be. What a splendid preparation for winning the child's coperation then Skillfully establish wise control of the youngster in his early years so you and he won't get on each other's nerves, so you and he can be lovely persons and have happy times together. The happy parent has disciplined her child well; the happy child is one who has been

Viruses Attack Garden Vegetables

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 7.—(INS)— If your victory-garden was afflicted Ladies of the Lions, Mrs., Hard- with stunted tomato plants, yellow ing Thayer, 304 Hazelcroft avenue. leaves on cucumber and squash plants and distorted fruits, blame it on viruses says Dr. W. C. Price of the University of Pittsourgh.

Dr. Price who came to Pitt about two months ago to head the school's research on plant viruses, said the viruses not only affect garden plants but are also the cause of measles and rabies.

Dr. Price's chief interest lies in the micro-organisms themselves. He studies their sizes, shapes and weights by means of photographs produced with the electronic mic-

A gardener can't do much after the viruses have attacked his plants, except to destroy those infected, said Dr. Price.

TO END WAITING LISTS

is the First Objective of our $150,000,000 EXPANSION PROGRAM Now under way

Since the green light flashed for civilian production, we've been whittling the waiting lists down, as we said we would. The surprising thing is how fast new applicants have been building them up again.

Here's the story in cold statistics:

At the peak there were 131,463 on the waiting lists.

In the last six months, we've taken 70,000 names off the waiting lists, while new applicants have added 57,000 names to the lists.

Result: The waiting lists have been reduced by only 13,000 names!

Demand, in other words, is still tremendous . . . and only a major operation like our $150,000,-000 expansion program can satisfy it.

But even $150,000,000 can't effect a cure overnight, and even the fact that telephone instruments are coming through fine can't turn the

It's the other equipment that holds things up . . . the central office switchboards and dial panels and cable and wire and the thousandand-one mysterious intricate mechanisms that combine to make telephone service possible.

It's the miles and miles of ditches that have to be dug, the thousands of poles that have to be erected, the countless cables that have to be spliced, the hours of installing and testing and re-testing that have to be clicked off.

It's the WORK . . . and behind that one word lies the secret to all else.

But we're on our way and we're making time and every one of us is determined to keep the pressure on to give you the kind of telephone service you like ... and the kind we like to give.

Here are

A "Look at the Books" "A Finger in the Pie"?

Which is the UAW-CIO really after? Is it seeking facts—or new economic power? Does it want to know things - or run things? These questions concern you as well as General Motors.

For years the facts about General Motors have been made public.

In spite of this, the UAW-CIO demands a chance to look at our books, with the hint that we could meet Union demands "if the truth were really known."

We have firmly declined to recognize this as a basis for bargaining.

I. The Full Facts are Published

How much General Motors takes in each year-how much it pays employes—how much it pays to stockholders how much it pays in taxes-how much net profit we makeand many other facts are plainly stated in annual reports and quarterly reports.

These are broadcast to 425,000 stockholders from coast to coast-sent to newspapers and libraries. Additional copies are free for the asking.

2. All Figures are Thoroughly Checked

Every General Motors Annual Statement is audited by outside auditors. Similar figures are filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission.

Does the UAW-CIO honestly believe that General Motors would or could deceive these experts?

3. The Basis of Collective Bargaining is Defined

The Wagner Act lays down the rules for collective bargaining. These cover such areas as rates of pay, hours of work, working conditions.

No mention is made of earnings, prices, sales volume, taxes and the like. These are recognized as the problems of management.

Something New has been Added

The obvious fact is that the UAW-CIO has gone beyond its rights under the law-and is reaching not for information but for new power – not for a look at past figures, but for the power to sit in on forecasting and planning the

A "look at the books" is a clever catch phrase intended as an opening wedge whereby Unions hope to pry their way into the whole field of management.

It leads surely to the day when Union bosses, under threat of strike, will demand the right to tell what we can make, when we can make it, where we can make it, and how much we must charge you-all with an eve on what labor can take out of the business, rather than on the value that goes into the product.

5. This Threatens All Business

If the Union can do this in the case of General Motors, it can do it to every business in this land of ours.

Is this just imagination? Union spokesmen have said, "The Union has stated time after time that this issue is bigger than just an ordinary wage argument, that it is bigger than the Corporation and bigger than the Union."

For Labor Unions to use the monopolistic power of their vast membership to extend the scope of wage negotiations to include more than wages, hours and working conditions is the first step toward handing the management of business over to the Union bosses.

We therefore reject the idea of a "look at the books" not because we have anything to hide but because the idea itself hides a threat to GM, to all business, and to you, the public.

Too often when the task gets difficult, children fall down on the job they started. Part of this falling down on the job is because young people didn't know when they began what the job would entail. Parents and teachers can be helpful in such cases by outlining what is involved. Another

George W. Carver Week Is Observed By Colored YMCA

Approximately 106 persons gathered in the club rooms of the She-nango street "Y" Sunday afternoon to hear a program in honor of George Washington Carver, famous Negro scientist, whose memory was observed nationally from January Principal speakers on the program were Miss Shirley Webber, Westminster college student, Arthur Hill and James Gillespie, Jr. local high school students. These three divided an address about the well-known Negro leader, with Mr. Gillespie giving the introduction. Arthur Hill spoke about the childhood and education of Carver, while Miss Webber concluded the address with a brief history of the famou man's works.

Following the speech, there were musical numbers by Dora King. Edna Alexander, Dora Ann Jones and Richard Mauldin. Edward E. Smith, executive secretary of the branch, announced to day that all boys and girls between the ages of 16 to 21 are invited to attend a meeting in the "Y" rooms, Thursday night at 8 p. m. STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 .- (INS) --Stocks were firm in forenoon today but price changes were largely meaningless as volume dropped to a slim 190,000 shares in the first Steels and motors were mixed and dull. General Motors and U.S. Steel held small gains. Rails were irregular with Southern Pacific off and N. Y. Central up.

Dealings in aviations were routine. A few specialties were individually strong including Wilson & Co., American Woolen and Sharon Steel. In the merchandising section Federated Department Stores touched a new high. Utilities were firm to higher. Bonds continued quiet.

A Local Man Felt Like Swollen Balloon: Full Of Stomach Gas

Recently, a New Castle man stated that he used to feel like a swollen balloon after every meal. He would bloat full of gas and spit up acidulous liquids for hours after eating. Was terribly constipated. This man is one of the hundreds in this vicinity who now praise ERB-HELP. He states he was amazed at the results when he took this medicine. Now he eats what he wants without gas or bloating, and bowels are regular for the first time in years. He feels like a new man ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get ERB-HELP. Sold by All Drug Stores here in New Castle.
